THE FIFTEENTH ANNUAL ORANGE CATHOLIC FOUNDATION

CONFERENCE ON BUSINESS & ETHICS

A FORUM FOR RESPONSIBLE LEADERS

THE CONFERENCE ON BUSINESS & ETHICS has become the premier event in Orange County, where a faith-based community of influential business, religious, academic, and philanthropic leaders can gather, knowing that they share a common commitment to ethical best practices in their daily lives.

While the Conference provides a valuable annual forum for business leaders in Orange County, its loftier purpose is to raise funds to provide financial aid for students in the Diocese of Orange who desire but otherwise can not afford high quality Catholic education. In 2016, nearly 1,000 attendees gathered in support of this great cause.

SPONSORSHIPS

Sponsorship of this event greatly impacts the lives of many students in our Catholic schools who will directly benefit from your generosity today and in the future as they become our future business, community, and spiritual leaders. 100% of the net profits from this breakfast event support tuition assistance programs for Catholic School students in the Diocese of Orange.

We recognize that our lives and our work are totally dependent upon God. Through prayer, we entrust to God our communities and all we do in service to Catholic schools as we share Mary's conviction: "Nothing will be impossible for God" (Luke 1:37).

BISHOP'S AWARD FOR EXEMPLARY BUSINESS INTEGRITY

ANNETTE WALKER, MHA

Annette Walker is President of Strategy, Providence St. Joseph Health (PSJH) and Chief Executive of St. Joseph Health. She is accountable for all strategy, marketing, sales/outreach/business development and project management offices across the PSJH system, which spans seven states and employs 100,000 caregivers.

In service to local communities, Annette has been on the board of trustees for St. Joseph Health's Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital, Queen of the Valley Medical Center, Petaluma Valley Hospital, Mission Hospital, St. Mary Medical Center and the CSJ Educational Network. She currently serves on the following boards: Institute for Mental Health and Wellness, Community Partnership Fund, USF School of Nursing and Health Professions, and the Orange County Business Council.

She is an advocate of work-life balance who enjoys spending time with her husband, Chuck, their six children and ten grandchildren.

CHRISTOPHER FURMAN

Christopher D. Furman is President and CEO of Ventura Foods, a leading global manufacturer of custom and branded food products based in Brea, Calif. Mr. Furman lends his expertise and giving to support educational and charitable organizations close to his heart. He serves on the board of the Pacific Life Insurance Company and served previously on the Children's Hospital of Orange County Foundation board and the Consultative Board for Santa Margarita Catholic High School. Mr. Furman received a degree in Food Marketing from St. Joseph's University (SJU) where, in 2013, he established an endowed scholarship for the school's Food Marketing students. In April 2017, SJU will induct Mr. Furman into its Haub Business School Hall of Fame. He lives in Coto de Caza, Calif., with his wife, Monica. They have three children, Matthew, Emily, and Caroline.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER • PATRICIA HEATON

Mother of four and award-winning actress, Patricia Heaton is one of the most unusual and refreshing voices in Hollywood. Never one to shy away from controversial topics, Heaton has made a name for herself by excelling at her craft and raising eyebrows among her peers.

Heaton is currently starring as a multi-tasking, working mother in ABC's new hit sitcom "The Middle" which tells the story of a middle-class Midwestern family through the eyes of the mother. Her hilariously realistic portrayal of much put-upon housewife Debra Barone in the hit show "Everybody Loves Raymond" garnered her seven nominations and two Emmys for best actress in a sitcom. Last fall, Heaton launched a new program, "Patricia Heaton Parties," on the Food Network.

Heaton is not just known for her excellence as an actress and writer. Her deep faith and strong social conscience have prompted her to speak out on issues that are hot-button topics in Hollywood. She is the founding member of World Vision's Celebrity Ambassador Network. Patricia and her husband David Hunt manage the multi-platform production company Four Boys Entertainment.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES • TIM CONWAY, JR.

Talk-show host, Tim Conway, Jr., hosts a nightly show on the No. 1 news/talk radio station in the country, KFI AM 640. His father is—yes—the real Tim Conway from the real Carol Burnett Show. Conway's down-to-earth take on life brings a sense of refreshing levity to the news and our SoCal culture. Tim is a strong advocate for Catholic education and will share his perspective at our Conference.

SPEAKER AND RECIPIENT OF THE FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD AMERICAN SPORTSCASTER • MR. VIN SCULLY

Vin Scully's fidelity to the Dodgers was legendary - he was with the Dodgers for sixty-seven straight seasons, including remaining with them when they left New York for Los Angeles in 1957. Vin Scully has the record - in all of professional sports history - for the longest time that a broadcaster has remained with one team. This record will not easily be matched. However, his commitment to baseball and the Dodgers has not been his only level of devotion - in fact, his faithfulness to the Lord in how he practices his Catholic faith is even more prominent.

According to a June 15, 2016, article by George Weigel in First Things, "Vin Scully has lived through tragedies that would have crushed or embittered others: the death of a wife; the death of a son. He openly credits the Catholic faith with which he grew up in the Bronx as his life's anchor."

Vin Scully has been an ardent proponent of the Rosary, which he narrated for Catholic Athletes for Christ, who honored him recently. He also earned the esteem of various bishops, including Archdiocese of Los Angeles auxiliary bishops Robert Barron (former Conference Keynote) and Joseph Brennan, both of whom met with Scully while attending the first ever "Catholic Night" in Dodger Stadium on September 2.
