

NAVIGATING THE COST OF SENIOR CARE

Saturday, September 24th, in San Rafael, the Columbian Retirement Home Corporation sponsored the second in its Columbian Senior Advisory Services (CSAS) Program's continuing series of symposia on Navigating the Cost of Senior Care.

The presentations were led by senior counselors Ginger McMurchie & Gail Arno of Senior Care Solutions, the professional service selected by the Retirement Home Corporation for their extensive experience in elder care and senior housing assistance.

This symposium covered valuable information about

- ✓ The spectrum of housing and facility options for seniors,
- ✓ In-home care and how to proceed,
- ✓ Medicare, Medi-Cal, Veteran's Aid,
- ✓ Long Term Care Insurance,
- ✓ Myths and realities about senior services and aging

Knights of Columbus insurance agents Francisco Fernandez, Michael Dougherty and Ericson Reduta were also present to discuss Long Term Care insurance with attendees.

President Frank Pulice spoke to attendees about the Columbian Retirement Home Corporation's sponsorship of the CSAS Program, the Marysville Retirement Residence Center, and the network of Preferred Affiliate Retirement Facilities available through CSAS.

The next Senior Care Symposium is scheduled for Saturday, November 12th at Deacon Compean Hall, 2475 Lincoln Blvd, in Venice.

More information about the Columbian Senior Advisory Services (CSAS) Program is available at the Columbian Retirement Home website

<http://www.columbianretirementhome.org/> or by calling 800 273-0068.